RULES & CONDITIONS

1. Entries are open until FRIDAY, 25th October 2019.
2. The competition has no theme. Any item can be entered providing it is made primarily from wood.
3. The item must be made by the person entering the competition.
4. The item must be made primarily from wood. Small amounts of mixed media are, however, acceptable.
5. The item cannot have been entered into and won a prize at any other similar competition, including last year's Artists who Wood competition.
6. Persons entering the under 18 category must be aged under 18 at the time of entry.
7. Please fill in one entry form per item entered into the competition.
8. A maximum of two items may be entered per category per person. For example, a person under 18 may in theory enter a maximum of six items (two per category).
9. Items entered in the Unplugged category must have been made using unpowered hand tools only.
10. Items entered into the competition will be exhibited during the Eden Whale Festival at the exhibition venue in Eden. Space may be limited. In the unlikely event that we run out of exhibition space we'll do our best to rotate the display.
11. Entrants are responsible for delivering and picking up of the entered items to the exhibition venue for judging and exhibiting.
12. Exhibition Venue has not yet been determined however will be within Eden. Competitors will be advised of venue.
 - a. Delivery of entries between 2pm & 4pm, Friday 1st November.
 - b. Pick up of entries and awards will be at 3pm Sunday, 3rd November.
13. By entering your items into the Artists who Wood competition you give organisers of the Eden Whale Festival and Sponsors the rights to use photographs of your items for publicity purposes.
14. The organisers of the Artists who Wood competition and exhibition, and organisers of the Eden Whale Festival take no responsibility or liability for any damage caused to entered items during the setting up and exhibition period.
